From Your Post Commander

This will be my last message to as your Post Commander. It has been a pleasure and an honor serving as your Post Commander.

Change of command ceremony was held at 0830 on Saturday July 17 at the Elks Lodge. James Lansberry was installed as the new Post Commander for Post 146.

Please make time in your schedules to attend a monthly Post meeting. As this newsletter goes out, the Elks Lodge is currently closed until August 3, 2021. Opening the Elks will be re-evaluated on August 3, 2021, as to opening or staying closed.

I will be continuing to serve as your 1st Vice Commander for the next year. The next newsletter will be from your new Commander James Lansberry.

Yours in Service,
Samuel Brookins
Post Commander

ALR 146 Report

We welcomed a new member Brady "Eagle" Creasey and our membership is starting to climb again. Since April, the Chapter has started riding again, attending Poker runs at ALR-365, ALR-149 and ALR-364. Each of these runs helps the Chapters raise money to support their posts and Veteran's programs. In May we elected Officers for the Post and the ALR Chapter. I will continue as President of the Riders, Jimmy will stay on as Vice President, Robert Creasey is our new Secretary and Dave Hamilton will continue to wear the many hats he has. I am ending my tenure as an E-board member, but will stay on as the Post Webmaster, and as an officer in the Rider Chapter.

Yours in Service,
George T. Christensen
President, ALR 146
